IS MARKED FOR DEATH

LONDON, May 8.—The Standard hears that information has been officially received of a plot to assassinate Lord Roberts, that the latter has been warned, and that telegrams are now passing between the Cape authorities, Lord Roberts and the home authorities on the subject.

The Parliamentary Secretary for the War Office, Mr. Wyndham, informs the Associated Press that the War Office has no information tending to confirm the reports of an alleged plot to assassinate Lord Roberts.

Plot to Assassinate Lord Roberts Discovered Just in Time.

LONDON, May 8.—The following dispatch from Lord Roberts has been received at the War Office:

SMALLFELDE, May 8.—The railway from Brandfort to this place has been considerably damaged and the bridge over the Vet river has been hopelessly damaged. The delay is causing much trouble. Every few yards of the railway have been laid under the rails. This might have been done by the Boers, but it was discovered by a West Australian infantryman.

IN SPITE OF THESE WRECKED RAILROADS THE BRITISH ADVANCE GOES ON STEADILY.

Lord Roberts' outposts are apparently about twelve miles north of Smallfede. General Buller has joined General Buller at Thaba N'Chu, thence they are moving forward. The country is all quiet in that direction. A reconnaissance made by General Buller of the Boers' recent position at Thaba N'Chu resulted in their being pronounced impregnable, and their evacuation is reported to have been due to the receipt of an urgent message from President Steyn. The Boers are said to be moving northward, but their immediate destination is not known.

The whereabouts of the cavalry under General Buller is still a mystery. While General Buller's divisions are also unaccounted for.

A dispatch from Cape Town dated today says:

"LORD ROBERTS' PHENOMENAL ADVANCE IS NOT ONLY TERRIBLY DEMORALIZING THE BOERS, BUT IS STRIKING TERROR TO THE REBEL COLONISTS."

"THE RELIEF OF MAFeking IS EXPECTED AT ANY MOMENT. It is slightly optimistic as regards Mafeking, judging from the direct dispatches, the British forces south of Mafeking being still nearly 200 miles from the town. The latest news from Mafeking itself, dated April 29, show little animation in the command there. The dispatches say:

"With the exception of a little fire at the outlying trenches, everything is quiet. The slight epidemic of typhoid is being treated as a matter of routine. The ENEMY'S ARTILLERY, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF TWO FIVE-POUNDER, HAS APPARENTLY BEEN WITHDRAWN."

"It was learned on April 24th that the enemy intended to attack it, and the Garrison stood to its arms. On Wednesday Colonel Baden-Powell took up a position on the outlook, and the heavy rifle of Mafeking and the heavy machine guns, which were in the hands of the Garrison, were brought into action. It was a battle of attrition, but it became apparent that the BOER OFFICERS COULD NOT PERSUADE THEIR MEN TO ADVANCE, THROUGH GLASSES WE SAW THE OFFICERS VAINLY TRYING THE INFANTRY FORWARD, THE ENEMY REFORMED AND RETREATED. OUR MEN FIRED A SHOT IN THE DIRECTION OF INDICATING THE ENEMY TO COME TO CLOSE QUARTERS."

"THE MEN OF THE GARRISON FORGOT THEIR SUGAR RATION FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE WOMEN AND CHILDREN."

"AFTER THE BOMBARDMENT, APRIL 23, ALL WAS COMPARATIVELY QUIET."

MAFeking's BRAVE GARRISON.

"The Boers are celebrating the 20th day of the siege with horse dinners and Colonel Baden-Powell sent a message to Lord Roberts, saying:

"After two hundred days of siege, I desire to bring to your lordship's notice the exceptionally good spirit of loyalty and the prevalence of all classes of the garrison and the patience of the Boers in making in making the best of things under the long strain of anxiety, hardship and privation, which is beyond all praise and a revelation to the world."

"The pluck and devotion of the women have been remarkable. With such spirits our organization runs like clockwork. I have every hope it will pull us through."

Cecil Rhodes has arrived at Cape Town with an entourage and has been made. He goes to Beira, and thence to Rhodesia, probably visiting General Sir Frederick Carrington. It is announced that no more Boer prisoners will be sent to St. Helena.

A special dispatch from London says that the colored American citizen named Richards, who was committed for trial by the special court on the charge of murder in connection with the explosion at Begbie's works, is alleged to have said he was offered 5,000 pounds to blow up the foundry.

KRUGER'S BRAVE WORDS

Tells the Boers the Transvaal's Future is Safe.

PRETORIA, Monday, May 7.—The official closing of the 1899 Volksraad, which broke up unofficially in September last, took place today. The vacant seats of General Joubert and General Deceek and others were filled with flowers. The hall was crowded with a large number of ladies being present.

In the prayer of the chaplain an allusion to General Joubert moved many to tears. After the prayer the Road adjourned to the afternoon, when the session of 1900 was inaugurated. The ceremonies were presided over by the commander in chief, President Kruger arrived in the state carriage with the usual escort. All the diplomats and foreign attaches, including General Deceek, the Russian attaché, were present.

The Volksraad was crowded to its full capacity and the session was most impressive. President Kruger, in his speech opening the session, alluded feelingly to the deceased General Joubert, who he said: "Referring to General Joubert, he said:

"FUTURE GENERATIONS WILL BE ABLE TO JUDGE THE WORK OF THE DECEASED. WHOSE NAME IS INSPIRED THE ENEMY WITH RESPECT AND WHOSE HUMANITY AND CARAVAN OF THE FUTURE AMONG CIVILIZED NATIONS."

He was profoundly struck, he said, with the speech made by General Joubert, who he said, "who had fulfilled their obligations to the Transvaal under the treaty. They realized that a united front was required, as an attack upon the independence of the Transvaal meant the threatening of the Free State. He had implicit confidence in the people of the Transvaal, which had proved of great moral value to those guiding the efforts of a small state to maintain its independence. He was pleased to say that the relations of the Transvaal with the foreign States, with the exception of Great Britain, were good."

As to the peace proposals of the President of both republics to Lord Salisbury, President Kruger said:

"WE HAVE PROVED BY LEGISLATION AND OUR DEALINGS WITH GREAT BRITAIN THAT WE DESIRE TO PRESERVE PEACE, AND NOW THAT WAR HAS BROKE OUT, WE WILL DO EVERYTHING TO RESTORE PEACE."

After alluding to the deputation now on a mission to Europe and the United States, he said that he was confident that the powers in the republics and their methods of fighting he said he was confident that the powers in the world was on their side in the war; that ambulances had been sent and that their friends were united in endeavoring to alleviate the distress caused by the struggle.

"NOTWITHSTANDING THE DIFFICULT CIRCUMSTANCES, I AM GLAD TO SAY THAT OUR FINANCES WILL BE ABLE TO WITHSTAND THE GREAT EXPENSE OF THE WAR, AND THAT THE MINES ARE FLOURISHING."

The President concluded with a reference to the Free State loan and suggested that the session be not prolonged and that only matters of importance be dealt with. He ended the blessing and help of the Almighty.

The proceedings terminated with unusual impressive speeches, and a large number of a total of sixty Legislators were present, several of them still suffering from wounds.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR BIG CROPS

Outlook For Grain Yield Never Better in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—The Department of Agriculture has issued the following bulletin, summarizing the conditions of the crops in California for the week just ended:

"The temperature has been nearly normal during the week, and no damaging frosts have occurred. Conditions have been unusually favorable for all growing crops, and prospects are greatly improved in all parts of the State. Heavy rains have fallen in Southern California and in nearly all other sections. The rain has slightly damaged cherries, strawberries and hay, but has been regarded as nearly a failure. It is now said fair crops of wheat and barley will be harvested. In some of the southern coast counties, where grain had been injured as nearly a failure, it is now said fair crops of wheat and barley will be harvested. In some of the southern coast counties, where grain had been injured as nearly a failure, it is now said fair crops of wheat and barley will be harvested."

In nearly all sections north of the Tehachapi grain is in excellent condition and prospects for large crops were never better. In some of the southern coast counties, where grain had been injured as nearly a failure, it is now said fair crops of wheat and barley will be harvested. MRS. J. S. PELTON'S WARM REPLY.

THEY ARE ACTUATED BY PANATISM BUT THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC IS RECOGNIZED BY THE UNITED STATES. WE HAVE NO RIGHT TO CONSIDER THE VIEWS OF PEOPLE WHO ARE ACTUATED BY NARROW-MINDEDNESS AND REPRUDERY. WHO WOULD CLOSE UP EVERY SALOON IF THEY HAD THE POWER—STATEMENT OF CHAIRMAN B. C. Cuvellier at the Council meeting last night, when he referred to the W. C. T. U. of Oakland.

Mrs. J. S. Pelton, press correspondent of the W. C. T. U., in a warm reply to Mr. Cuvellier, said:

"I do not like this personal publicity. Mr. Cuvellier's remarks were not directed against me personally. They were directed against the liquor traffic, and speaking of people speak when they are talking to the gallery. In other words, he was talking to the liquor element, so I did not feel it necessary to reply."

"I contrasted the speech of Mr. Cuvellier's last night with the equally fiery and unchristian speech of the other side of the Council on the other side of the question when the granting of license to the saloon on Twelfth street, which was up before the Council last night. I said that if he had been so affected by the question of granting or denying that license that he did not sleep for three nights. He then delivered a speech in granting the license, and it was on the other side of the question from that which he assumed last night."

"As regards the morals of the case last night, I said that I was not a thing about it until yesterday afternoon. A lady of the neighborhood said that somebody had brought in a protest, and I said I would go and ask one of the Councilmen to try and get the matter postponed for a week to enable the protest to be filed."

"Mr. Cuvellier talked just as eloquently and passionately on the Kuck's license as he did last night in granting the license, which was the opposite side."

"Women can't understand how men will change their minds on such a subject, and I said that I was not a thing about it until yesterday afternoon. A lady of the neighborhood said that somebody had brought in a protest, and I said I would go and ask one of the Councilmen to try and get the matter postponed for a week to enable the protest to be filed."

"That night he stated that he had made a personal investigation for himself and found that the Kuck's license was a thing about it until yesterday afternoon. A lady of the neighborhood said that somebody had brought in a protest, and I said I would go and ask one of the Councilmen to try and get the matter postponed for a week to enable the protest to be filed."

"I felt disappointed in Mr. Cuvellier, because when he was running for office he was elected on the basis of the Temperance cause and by the best people in town. If he should run again he wouldn't get anything like the support he has now. He has the best influences were in his behalf."

"Mr. Stetson has always been a friend of the Temperance cause. He has been Why Mr. Gerard said, speaking of Mr. Stetson: 'Why, if that young fool had his way, he would not leave a saloon in the city. He would have it all closed down. I don't know who owns the saloon nor where it is located.'

"We are very conservative in our acts. It is easy for old organs to get into the Women's Christian Temperance Union, which has stood the brunt of storms for years, to hear up under a little criticism like this."

"I do not want to appear hurt because, we have some work to do next Monday night. We are going to have a large land which will come up for a license before the Council. We have promised the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Oakland to have them to their fight against it. I don't know who owns the saloon nor where it is located."

"Here is something which I do not know, but it is a person opposed to this license by a person who was working against it. That Mr. Cuvellier had said that he would have it all closed down. I don't know who owns the saloon nor where it is located."

"I don't know who owns the saloon nor where it is located."

"I don't know who owns the saloon nor where it is located."

ROSIE'S LOST RING.

"And a ring of gold she gave him. And vows of love he spoke; Those vows are all forgotten—The ring asunder broke."

So quoth Dr. Edward Conn, dentist and Bohemian, as he reclined on his bunk in the City Prison this morning and blew rings of tobacco smoke through his nostrils. Dr. Conn was arrested last night on a charge of felony embezzlement, purloined by Mrs. Rose Albers, a pretty young widow, who has been employed as an attendant in Dr. Conn's office on Washington street, near Thirteenth.

Mrs. Albers claims that she loaned the dashing tooth extractor some jewelry, which he at once proceeded to pawn.

"It was this way," said Conn this morning. "You see, the poor girl fell in love with me. I really couldn't help that, don't you know, and it's blasted poor taste to put a fellow in a blooming hole like this. Soon after she came to my office Rosie wished her diamond ring on my finger. I said, 'I don't want it. I couldn't find the heart, don't you know to hurt her feelings by refusing to wear the ring.'"

"Well, yesterday I was washing my hands in the laboratory and Rosie was standing beside me. While I was thus absorbed in the security of the ring fell out and was lost. When I took a towel to dry my hands I observed what had happened."

"Rosie," said I, 'the setting is gone from the ring. I will, of course, replace it, but you must tell your father in the meantime.'"

"She seemed to take it all right and went out after a time to return later with her father. To him I made the same promise to replace the diamond and he left apparently satisfied. I had done the only thing I could and I supposed everything was settled when the police came to my office and placed me under arrest. That is all I know about the case."

Mrs. Albers tells a story which differs materially from that of the dentist.

"I had been employed at the dental office but a short time, she said, 'when Dr. Conn asked me to let him wear my ring. I foolishly gave it to him, and after awhile he said he had lost it and a diamond set which I also gave him to replace. When he came back yesterday that he had pawned them I consulted my father and the result was Dr. Conn's arrest. I now intend to prosecute him to the full extent of the law.'"

Mrs. Albers is a strikingly handsome woman. She is the daughter of Louis Fomeler, the well-known musician, and a child of Mrs. Conn's, whose elopement, which was planned at a French dinner, and subsequent divorce created a sensation.

In the Police Court this morning Conn was arraigned before Judge Smith and his examination was set for next Monday. He said he was sure to get out of the jail and so far he has been unable to raise it."

RIOTS IN ST. LOUIS

Street Car Strike Begun With Violence and Bloodshed.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 8.—One of the greatest strikes in the history of St. Louis was inaugurated today, when 3,345 of the employees of the St. Louis Transit Company went out to meet the demands of their demands formulated several days ago.

The salient features of the men's demands, which the Transit Company refused to grant, are briefly as follows:

"That all conductors, motormen, gripmen and all men employed in the sheds shall be compelled to be members of the union; that the officers of the union together with the officers of the company shall have full power to adjust all difficulties that may arise, and that in the event of their failing to agree shall, if mutually agreed to, place the case before three arbitrators."

"That any member suspended by the union shall be suspended by the company without pay until such time as the union requests his reinstatement."

"That any man elected to an office in the union shall, upon his retirement from such office, have his old place in the union restored to him."

Practically every car line in St. Louis is tied up. The suburban line, the only one in the city not a part of the extensive St. Louis Transit Company's system, ran cars for several hours this morning, but was compelled to shut down, as their men were pulled off the cars by strikers. The city line, which runs from the Union Depot to the downtown section of the city. A number of cars were run out on the Park avenue division of the Lindell line.

CONDUCTOR SHOTS A BOY.

John Kohring, 13 years old, was shot by Conductor George McClellan of the Park avenue division of the Transit system at the corner of Thirteenth and Washington streets. The boy was about 10 years old, and was running about the corner when he was shot. The boy was shot in the chest, and was severely wounded. He was taken to the dispensary in a buggy by John McCarthy of the Excelsior Heating Company.

McClellan, who was arrested, says he shot in order to frighten them away. He considers the action justifiable.

On each one of the lines converging at Washington avenue, cars were run out. Four cars got out down town as far as Sixth street, but were not allowed to pass that point. All were attacked by a mob on Washington and Fifth streets, who threw sticks and stones. The Southern wires were broken, and the motormen and conductors were injured by missiles. A riot call was sent in from Broadway and Sixth streets, and the rioters rushed to the scene, attacking his lip, and his nose was smashed by a stone. He ran into a saloon for protection. One woman, a woman about 20 years old, was struck in the head by a sharp stone that crashed through a window and was badly wounded. Finally the rioters returned from the scene, and a shower of stones and mud succeeded in getting his car away from the crowd.

An attempt was made at 8:30 o'clock to take out a car on the Olive street line. It got as far as Compton avenue. Here a crowd took the gripman and conductor off and ran the cars back to the depot. Six United States postal cars were tied up today. Each makes seven trips daily, and the cars were held up for several hours. The city, forty sub-stations receive the delivery.

Postmaster Baumhoff said:

"I am sorry to hear of the rioting, but the mails will be delivered on time or some one will hear from us."

METHODIST CONFERENCE

CHANGES IN PENSION LAWS

Election of Officers Will Begin Next Monday.

Provisions of the Bill Just Passed By Congress.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Licensed Wire. CHICAGO, May 8.—The election of the Methodist Episcopal conference will begin next Monday. The committee on the state of the church filed May 1th as the day for the first nominations. The time-honored routine of the conference will be followed. The committee also filed May 2th as the date of the adjournment of the conference.

A subcommittee of fifteen was provided to which committee all memorials or petitions relating to amendments shall be referred. The matter of suggesting action on the proposal to remove the five year time limit on pastors has been placed in the hands of a subcommittee by the general committee on ministry. This committee consists of Rev. J. J. Bentley, chairman, and an equal number of laymen and clergymen. At its initial meeting last night the subcommittee heard thirteen memorials on the time limit question. Eight of these favored the unconditional removal of the limit; two favored conditional removal of the limit; and three opposed its removal. The committee took no action and will hold another meeting tonight.

Dr. C. J. Little, a member of the committee, said it was evident that there was an element of strength on each side and it was impossible for the committee to forecast which side would prove the stronger. Other members of the committee were similarly conservative.

THE CANAL

WORK ON THE CANAL

TO THE FRONT

Makes Explanation to the People of the Encinal.

Government Bridges Are Now Being Put Shape.

ALAMEDA, May 8.—The Encinal will print the following communication tonight:

OAKLAND, Cal., May 5, 1930.

Editor The Daily Encinal, Alameda, Cal., Dear Sir: My attention has just been called to an article in your valuable paper of date May 4, 1930, and headed "Harbor Improvements." The portion of the article to which I especially desire to call your attention is as follows:

"At a conference between a committee of the Board of Trade and Congressmen selected today, the latter went into the steps that he had taken with regard to harbor improvement. He stated that he believed the dredging of the channel west of Webster street would be an important part of the present harbor improvement project and that a portion of the present appropriation should be used for that purpose."

This statement is not correct. I stated to the people of Alameda during my campaign, that I was in favor of the completion of the canal at the earliest possible moment. Upon my arrival in the city, I took up with the engineers of the War Department the question of the completion of the canal. I urged immediate action and proposed that the dredging of the channel west of Webster street be completed at the earliest possible moment. I considered the unnecessary delay in the completion of this great and important project. I have had interviews with the engineering department on the subject of the tidal canal and have been given assurances that there will be no delay, but that the work will be pushed to a speedy completion.

The concurrent resolution introduced by me has absolutely no bearing upon the question of the completion of the canal. It is a resolution to the effect that the dredging of the channel west of Webster street be completed at the earliest possible moment. It is my purpose to introduce a favorable resolution in the lines of the resolution introduced, to then go before Congress and ask for an appropriation for the completion of the canal. I have no doubt that the people of Alameda will be in a position to do all in its power to assist the people of Alameda in carrying out the canal through to a successful conclusion.

I write you this letter in order that there may be no misunderstanding in regard to my position, and in conclusion I desire to say that I have in no wise changed my views or my opinions and that I propose to live up to the statements made by me to the good people of Alameda. You can rest assured that I will make all the candidates for the canal work be carried through to a speedy and successful conclusion, and I have assurances from the engineering department that the dredging of the canal will be let out at an early date.

Yours very truly,
V. H. METCALF.

CHANGES IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

ALAMEDA, May 8.—The Board of Education has quietly decided upon a number of important changes in the pension expenditure to be made at the annual election of teachers and principals early in June. At a secret caucus of the board, the changes were decided upon. The changes are of a nature to increase the pension fund and to provide for the pension of teachers and principals who have been in the school department many years.

It Has Never Failed

Mr. C. S. Peaslee, the well-known druggist of Morgan City, La., is highly thought of in his neighborhood because of his skill and care in filling prescriptions. The best physicians in the place send their patients to his store whenever they can. Anything which Mr. Peaslee may say can be depended upon absolutely. In a letter to W. H. Hooker & Co., New York city, proprietors of Acker's English Remedy, he says: "In all my many years' experience as a druggist, I have never handled a medicine of any nature that gave such complete satisfaction as Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. I have sold hundreds of bottles, and have yet to learn of a single case where it failed to cure. In a group, it acts with a certainty that is really marvelous. My wife does not take much stock in medicine, but she has absolute faith in Acker's English Remedy, always having it at her elbow in case the children are attacked by croup at night. It is a positively harmless remedy, as I can personally testify. I know of a little girl who accidentally drank a whole bottle. She was, of course, sick at her stomach for a short time, but the sickness passed away, and then the child was in better health than ever before. I can understand why Acker's English Remedy is so efficacious, because I am a druggist. It is not a mere expectorant, but a strengthening, invigorating tonic as well. While it heals the irritations of the mucous membrane, it also builds up the constitution and purifies the blood. I endorse it absolutely."

Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s, 2s, 3s, 4s, 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above statements. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.

Mr. Dabzell, on behalf of the majority, contended that the disclosure of the information asked for would subject the Secretary of the Treasury to the penalties imposed by section 3077.

CHARGES MADE BY SISTERS. REV. DAVIS. Young Wife Has Been in Hiding Three Weeks.

The statement is made that Mrs. Edwards Davis, wife of the Rev. Edwards Davis, has been in hiding for three weeks and that she left suddenly for Georgia last evening, whither she has gone to join her husband.

Mrs. Davis announced three weeks ago that she was going to New York in order to go on the stage. A dispatch even came from New York that she had arrived in that city and that she was about to secure an engagement with a theatrical company. It appears now that all these statements were false and that Mrs. Davis has been in hiding, waiting to hear from her husband.

She heard from the Rev. Davis and decided to join him. Her mother, Mrs. Kinmore, purchased the ticket and Mrs. Davis left for the East on the overland last night.

WORK OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

Many Matters Brought Up Before the Board.

The City Council held a regular meeting last evening and transacted considerable business of great importance to the city.

One of the first matters suggested was the matter of sewerage into Cemetery Creek, a subject which had given the Council no end of trouble. A petition from Ira Bishop, asking that some action be taken in the matter, was read and Dr. Y. Campbell, on behalf of the property owners, asked that a systematic sewerage system be planned. After some discussion the matter was referred to a Street Committee, where it will be thoroughly investigated.

Another matter taken up was the invitation of the Merchants' Exchange for the Council to attend its meeting this evening, when the subject of a city and county government will be considered. It was decided to attend the meeting in a body.

Councilman Meese introduced a resolution directing the City Engineer to select a site for a public street, just west of Market, a public street, and the matter was referred to the Street Committee for further consideration.

Mr. Lemmon introduced an ordinance providing for two additional engineers, three drivers, two stokers, two firemen, and an extra for the annex fire apparatus. It was referred to the ordinance and Judiciary Committee.

MAY NOT MOVE LINE OUT THE TOMPKINS. SAN PABLO.

The Residents Protest Work on the New Electric Road Will Soon Start.

An effort was made at the meeting of the City Council last evening to pass a resolution authorizing the Board of Education to move the Tompkins school building. The Board had passed a resolution asking the Council for such permission, but when the matter was brought up in the Council it met with serious objections.

When the resolution of the Board of Education was read Schaffer stated that there were many people in the neighborhood of the school who protested against its removal. He thought that the matter should, at least, be thoroughly considered by the Council.

Councillor Taylor, who had gone over the ground thoroughly and had discussed the matter with members of the Board of Education, he believed that the removal of the Tompkins school to Fifth and Grove streets and the removal of the school building at that place to the Tompkins site would result in great advantage to the School Department.

Rowe also favored the change and said that the protest against it should be heard by the Board of Education and not by the City Council.

Mr. Lane, who lives in that district, called for a little time in which to circulate a petition against the removal. He said he was a taxpayer for years, he said, and he and his wife lived in the Tompkins house south of Seventh Street, which was the site of the school.

Glard thought the Council should listen to the voice of the people. He thought it would be a great injustice to the people who lived in the neighborhood of Fifth and Grove streets when they did not object to the schools.

"When I was a member of the Board of Education," said he, "I spent $100.00 to improve the Tompkins school. It now belongs to the residents of that district. They say that the school has three or four vacant rooms. He also said that the school had more rooms than that vacant and yet you never hear a complaint about it. If the building at Fifth and Grove streets and the Board wishes to move to the present Tompkins site, a decent one there might be no objection, but this building that they are talking about is merely a shed. They are mostly poor people who attend the Tompkins school and they would be very much interested in making a comfortable and not the shed."

Councillor said that the people who lived in the Tompkins house, similarly situated in regard to wealth.

"Let them build an addition to the present school at Fifth and Grove streets," said he, "and if they need more room it would be nonsense to move the present building for it would have to be out into at least three places and there would be nothing but a shed when it arrived at the new site." T. W. Wheeler, a resident of the district, spoke against the removal, stating that it would do little loss to robbery to the citizens of that locality. He said that removal would be an outrage, pure and simple.

H. A. Powell, a member of the Board of Education explained that it would be an outrage to move the school to the location of the school. It cost, he said, over $300 a year more than it ought to, owing to the location and the small percentage of pupils who attended the school.

After some further discussion Taylor moved that the entire matter be referred to the Committee of the Whole and it was so ordered.

AYES—Glard, Lemmon, Meese, Mott, Schaffer, Taylor, Barstow, S. Nays—Councillor, Union, Barstow.

The Oakland Railroad Company is about to commence work on the extension of its electric line out San Pablo Avenue from the present terminus, at Sixty-first Street in Golden Gate to University Avenue in West Berkeley.

The men who are now erecting the poles and running the wires for the line to North Berkeley, will complete that work today. They will then be put to work immediately in erecting the poles on the San Pablo Avenue extension.

It is understood that the company proposes to lay a single track out this thoroughfare for the present, with the intention of later on, when the traffic has sufficiently increased, of adding another track.

The laying of the roadbed and track will probably not be commenced for some time as it is the intention of the company to use the same force of workmen employed in extending the tracks to North Berkeley in doing the work on San Pablo Avenue. As far as the different sets of men complete their work on the North Berkeley line they will be set to work on the San Pablo extension and the work will be pushed to completion.

The commencement of the work on San Pablo will cause much rejoicing among the residents along that thoroughfare and throughout West Berkeley. The new road will afford them easy and quick communication with Oakland and outside points and it will be a great advantage to cause a great increase in property values in that section of the town.

JEFFRIES SURE OF WHIPPING CORBETT.

Both Men in Splendid Shape For the Battle For the Championship Next Friday Night.

By HENRY A. NEWBERRY of the TRIBUNE STAFF.

The fact that though Jeffries and Corbett are to battle for the heavy-weight championship next Friday night there is no betting on the fight is eloquent testimony as to the light in which the sporting public views the match.

The belief is general that it is a cut and dried affair, but as the sports are not certain as to the one to be for blood. No ed shall win, the odds being even, and it is in their hands instead of the pool rooms with it, as they have done in all the other championship fights.

Despite this peculiar condition of affairs, however, the chances are that the fight Friday night will be for blood. No one ever accused Jeffries of being a faker, and there is no reason to believe he is not acting in good faith in the present match. He is young, ambitious and, it is reasonable to suppose, values the championship he won from Fitzsimmons and defended against Sharkey far more than dollars by purposely losing to Corbett and ruining his reputation as an honest fighter. Whatever job Billy Brady may be trying to put up on the public, it can be put down as certain that Jeffries is not a party to it and that he will enter the ring Friday night determined to whip Corbett in the time if possible.

Jeffries has unlimited confidence in his ability to thrash Corbett and do it quickly. In an interview yesterday the champion said:

"You may tell my California friends that if Corbett takes my measure next Friday night, I will take him by the hand and give him a hearty shake of congratulation. But he is not going to win, and I am not going to be forced to extend my congratulations. I never was so sure of anything in my life. I don't like to boast about this name, but I will make a bet that I will outbox him. There are a lot of people talking about how clever Jim is, and what a great lead he has over me in the matter of science, but I am just prepared to drop a little money on that proposition."

"Of course, I am a big slug and a cow and have been known to fall over myself, but somehow or other these clever fellows fall to hit me. I am terribly slow, but in the estimation of a number of good fellows, but so far I have managed to keep out of the way of all the fastest-footed fighters I have met. I am prepared to say that Jim is fast on his feet and quick with his hands, but does anyone think that I am going to stand off and let him jab my face until I can't see? No, sir. I am going to make the pace from the start. I am going right to him, just as I have always done and propose to win just as quickly as I can. Jim's only chance is to win within six rounds, for, with all due respect to him, that is about as far as he can go. I wonder what he will look like at the end of the twenty-fifth, if it goes that far? I am telling you that I am going to make the pace and I can assure you that it will be the hottest that was ever set for Corbett."

"You hear the usual talk about my lack of condition and my sore left arm, but you can put it down that I am well and strong and fit. Corbett can come back just as far as possible in the matter of condition and I will still beat him. Just remember what I say, I am going to outbox him at his own particular game of footwork and feinting, and I am going to make the pace and get him before the fight goes very far."

Corbett, from all accounts, is training for this fight as he never did before, and will be in the very best condition it is possible for him to get himself into when he faces Jeffries. He has cut out all the fancy work to which he attributes his defeat by Fitzsimmons. Handball playing and exhibitions of pretty spinning for the benefit of his admirers are no part of Corbett's preparation this time. Instead, he has been doing rugged work for months, with big Gus Ruhlin, who fought Jeffries a twenty-round draw a couple of years ago. Corbett and Ruhlin have a set-to daily with each other and are not admitted, but which is said to be something fierce. They go at it hammer and tongs, and Corbett believes that the ease with which he holds his own against Ruhlin, who is a 200-pound giant and a hard hitter, is assurance enough that Jeffries, big and strong as he is, will have no cakewalk in defeating him Friday night.

Jeffries looks a sure winner, but if Corbett has regained his old-time stamina it ought to be a pretty fight while it lasts. Corbett is far away from Jeffries' superior as a boxer, and at long range fighting he should easily outpoint him and win the decision, though he can never knock Jeffries out. But the champion won't have it that way. He will rush and smash from the sound of the gong, and sooner or later he will nail Corbett in a corner, and the latter's dream of regaining his lost laurels will be over.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Licensed Wire. CHICAGO, May 8.—Tom Sharkey will undertake to defeat Joe Choynski at Tattersall's tonight. The battle will be a pretty important one, as Sharkey has engaged in since Jeffries won the decision over him at Coney Island last fall. Choynski never worked harder for a coming fight, and both men will go into the ring in nearly perfect condition.

If Choynski can defeat Sharkey or give him a fast and even fight it will be a big boom for the fighting stock of the Californians. Just now his record is slightly better than the record of most of the hands of Joe Walcott. Choynski realizes this and will make a supreme effort to show his Chicago admirers that he has a right to be classed among the leading heavyweights.

There is very little betting on the fight, but the interest is keen to see small sums at even money have been laid on the proposition that Choynski will not last the limit. It is a 3 to 1 that Sharkey will be the winner of the encounter.

Both men took their final preparation yesterday. Sharkey made a particularly busy day of it. There was a big crowd on hand to see the sailor, but only a chosen few were admitted on account of the limited capacity of the arena. Sharkey took a five mile run yesterday morning and in the afternoon boxed Charles Pitts, Jack Root and Bob Armstrong.

The local middleweight put up a pretty set to with Sharkey. The two men kept it up for half an hour, but Sharkey's hard work for a fight, Sharkey was cranked and was disposed to try out his hitting power. Root returned with the same kind, and it was a merry give and take affair. Sharkey then took on Bob Armstrong and fought him for five rounds. Choynski finished his training at his home in La Grange. He took matters easy and will take on weight between now and the time of the fight.

BUFFALO LITHIA WATER. Dissolves and Eliminates Calculi and Stone Both of the Kidney and Bladder.

"A Veritable Antidote For Albuminuria and Bright's Disease Acute and Chronic."

Case of Mr. S. Reported by Dr. G. H. Pierce, of Danbury, Conn., in the New England Medical Monthly.

"Mr. S., American, 47 years old, four months ago consulted me. I advised that his bladder be explored, for foreign body, which I was sure was present. On entering the bladder I encountered a large mass, which from the characteristic click, I decided was a stone. It was something immense, and larger than anything that I have ever known of. * * * I prescribed BUFFALO LITHIA WATER, four times a day, and a good liberal diet, together with tonic. In three days he called me, and showing me the vessel which he had used during the night, asked me if the debris was not dissolved. I was amazed to see the quantity of brick-dust, or rather iron-rust, looking deposit which was present. The material kept coming away, and sometimes large particles came from time to time. After all were passed, which took three and a half months, the last particles which were saved WEIGHED TWO OUNCES AND TWENTY-SEVEN GRAINS. To-day I passed a sound into his bladder and found it entirely free."
